About

My full name is Rand Luqman Ali. I am 23 years old. I ranked 8 among the top 10 people on the list of firsts. I am a recent graduate from the sulaymani polytechnic University College of Administration / Accounting & finance. with a strong academic background in Finance, Accounting. I bring a comprehensive understanding of financial analysis, auditing practices, and core accounting principles, paired with a keen eye for detail and a commitment to accuracy. I am highly motivated to leverage my skills within a forward-thinking finance team, where I can contribute to achieving organizational goals. My ambition is to continuously enhance my expertise and take on challenges that drive both personal and professional growth within the finance sector. I have done an internship in Supply Chain for 2 months at Asiace communication PSJC.
